Charles Kelly, of Dubuque, Arrested in Rock Island.

Society Man Wanted on Three Charges of Lar-

Deputy Sheriff Frank Andrews toapprehended and arrested Charles Kelly, alias Lemar, wanted at Dubuque on three charges of larceny. Kelly was captured in the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company at 10 o'clock this morning. Mr. Andrews telegraphed at once to Dubuque, and Kelly left Rock Island this afternoon in charge of Sheriff T. J. Conlin, of the Iowa town, where the prisoner is said to have stolen jewelry from a number of women. When arrested Kelly had in his possession diamond rings valued at $300.

Kelly is a married man and is said to have stood well in Dubuque society until he began going the "pace." His income would not meet his living expenses, and it was necessary for him to coaceive other means of winning gold. His plan, so it is reported here, was to win his way into the confidences of those of the gentler sex who would countenance his attentions, and eventually separate them from as much of their valuables as he was able to get his hands on. His perations were successful for awhile.

Victim Squeals. But recently one of the victims comclained to the authorities. Kelly eard of it and departed from Duuque last Saturday. He bought a icket for Rock Island. A telegram lescribing Kelly and requesting his arrest was forwarded to the Rock Island sheriff's office. The officers immediately began a search for him, and he was landed, as told above, by Deputy Sheriff Andrews.
